

PARAGRAPHS FOR THE NEW ENGLAND

News of General Interest From the Six States

Last year in New England 223 children were killed and 4900 were injured playing in the streets, and the whole block of the cannon, which killed 110 was killed, an average of 16 a month.

A premature explosion of his home cannon fatally injured Everett Robbins, 17, of Leominster. The driver of the cannon, which was testing for the Fourth was driven into his body. He died on his way to the hospital.

After an examination of the head of the dog which terrorized Malden, Mass., residents and bit four children, the state board of animal industry announced that the animals was afflicted with rabies. All of the children attacked have started taking serum treatments.

For the second time within a week a wild deer made its way through Worcester, Mass., streets. The deer came into the city from the west, by way of Chandler street, and at Chandler and Queen streets crossed Chandler street, mowing and severed his jugular vein, dying in a few minutes.

Many members of the Sanford, Me., Baptist Sunday School were driven from the water by sharks while on a picnic at the shore at Wells Beach. The church and Sunday school were on their annual picnic and large numbers were in the ocean when two sharks were sighted. The sharks were the rollers.

The National Education Association at its future conventions will use a gavel made from the wood of Concord (Mass.) bridge. State Commissioner of Education Payson Smith has written the association in regard to the association from the Concord school children. It was from the Concord bridge that the "shot heard around the world" was fired.

Relief in housing condition is indicated by the fact that the Massachusetts state department of labor and industries. Figures for May show that applications were filed in 37 cities of the state for the erection of 1139 new residential buildings planned to provide accommodations for 1458 families. The plans call for apartments in housekeeping dwellings alone in 47 families; two family houses, 73 families; multi-family houses, 509 families; residential dwellings with stores therein, 32 families.

It was with the cause of an automobile accident at New London, Conn., that may result in a fatality. Charles Madison of Seymour was driving his car, his wife sitting beside him carrying a baby. Madison was badly hurt about the little one's head, and in the effort to drive the insect away Madison lost control of the car. The machine crashed into a tree and the baby was killed. A badly hurt that she was hurried to the New Haven hospital, where it was discovered that she had sustained deep cuts in her hand. The baby nor Madison was injured.

The birth rate in Massachusetts is gradually falling, according to the figures for 1923, which were made public by Secretary of the Commonwealth, Charles F. Adams. In 1923 there were 22.05 children born for every 1000 population. This is a gain of but .02 per 1000 over the figure for 1922, which was 22.03. In 1920 the birth rate was 22.07. In 1919 it was 22.07. In 1918 it was 22.07. In 1917 it was 22.07. In 1916 it was 22.07. In 1915 it was 22.07. In 1914 it was 22.07. In 1913 it was 22.07. In 1912 it was 22.07. In 1911 it was 22.07. In 1910 it was 22.07. In 1909 it was 22.07. In 1908 it was 22.07. In 1907 it was 22.07. In 1906 it was 22.07. In 1905 it was 22.07. In 1904 it was 22.07. In 1903 it was 22.07. In 1902 it was 22.07. In 1901 it was 22.07. In 1900 it was 22.07. In 1899 it was 22.07. In 1898 it was 22.07. In 1897 it was 22.07. In 1896 it was 22.07. In 1895 it was 22.07. In 1894 it was 22.07. In 1893 it was 22.07. In 1892 it was 22.07. In 1891 it was 22.07. In 1890 it was 22.07. In 1889 it was 22.07. In 1888 it was 22.07. In 1887 it was 22.07. In 1886 it was 22.07. In 1885 it was 22.07. In 1884 it was 22.07. In 1883 it was 22.07. In 1882 it was 22.07. In 1881 it was 22.07. In 1880 it was 22.07. In 1879 it was 22.07. In 1878 it was 22.07. In 1877 it was 22.07. In 1876 it was 22.07. In 1875 it was 22.07. In 1874 it was 22.07. In 1873 it was 22.07. In 1872 it was 22.07. In 1871 it was 22.07. In 1870 it was 22.07. In 1869 it was 22.07. In 1868 it was 22.07. In 1867 it was 22.07. In 1866 it was 22.07. In 1865 it was 22.07. In 1864 it was 22.07. In 1863 it was 22.07. In 1862 it was 22.07. In 1861 it was 22.07. In 1860 it was 22.07. In 1859 it was 22.07. In 1858 it was 22.07. In 1857 it was 22.07. In 1856 it was 22.07. In 1855 it was 22.07. In 1854 it was 22.07. In 1853 it was 22.07. In 1852 it was 22.07. In 1851 it was 22.07. In 1850 it was 22.07. In 1849 it was 22.07. In 1848 it was 22.07. In 1847 it was 22.07. In 1846 it was 22.07. In 1845 it was 22.07. In 1844 it was 22.07. In 1843 it was 22.07. In 1842 it was 22.07. In 1841 it was 22.07. In 1840 it was 22.07. In 1839 it was 22.07. In 1838 it was 22.07. In 1837 it was 22.07. In 1836 it was 22.07. In 1835 it was 22.07. In 1834 it was 22.07. In 1833 it was 22.07. In 1832 it was 22.07. In 1831 it was 22.07. In 1830 it was 22.07. In 1829 it was 22.07. In 1828 it was 22.07. In 1827 it was 22.07. In 1826 it was 22.07. In 1825 it was 22.07. In 1824 it was 22.07. In 1823 it was 22.07. In 1822 it was 22.07. In 1821 it was 22.07. In 1820 it was 22.07. In 1819 it was 22.07. In 1818 it was 22.07. In 1817 it was 22.07. In 1816 it was 22.07. In 1815 it was 22.07. In 1814 it was 22.07. In 1813 it was 22.07. In 1812 it was 22.07. In 1811 it was 22.07. In 1810 it was 22.07. In 1809 it was 22.07. In 1808 it was 22.07. In 1807 it was 22.07. In 1806 it was 22.07. In 1805 it was 22.07. In 1804 it was 22.07. In 1803 it was 22.07. In 1802 it was 22.07. In 1801 it was 22.07. In 1800 it was 22.07. In 1799 it was 22.07. In 1798 it was 22.07. In 1797 it was 22.07. In 1796 it was 22.07. In 1795 it was 22.07. In 1794 it was 22.07. In 1793 it was 22.07. In 1792 it was 22.07. In 1791 it was 22.07. In 1790 it was 22.07. In 1789 it was 22.07. In 1788 it was 22.07. In 1787 it was 22.07. In 1786 it was 22.07. In 1785 it was 22.07. In 1784 it was 22.07. In 1783 it was 22.07. In 1782 it was 22.07. In 1781 it was 22.07. In 1780 it was 22.07. In 1779 it was 22.07. In 1778 it was 22.07. In 1777 it was 22.07. In 1776 it was 22.07. In 1775 it was 22.07. In 1774 it was 22.07. In 1773 it was 22.07. In 1772 it was 22.07. In 1771 it was 22.07. In 1770 it was 22.07. In 1769 it was 22.07. In 1768 it was 22.07. In 1767 it was 22.07. In 1766 it was 22.07. In 1765 it was 22.07. In 1764 it was 22.07. In 1763 it was 22.07. In 1762 it was 22.07. In 1761 it was 22.07. In 1760 it was 22.07. In 1759 it was 22.07. In 1758 it was 22.07. In 1757 it was 22.07. In 1756 it was 22.07. In 1755 it was 22.07. In 1754 it was 22.07. In 1753 it was 22.07. In 1752 it was 22.07. In 1751 it was 22.07. In 1750 it was 22.07. In 1749 it was 22.07. In 1748 it was 22.07. In 1747 it was 22.07. In 1746 it was 22.07. In 1745 it was 22.07. In 1744 it was 22.07. In 1743 it was 22.07. In 1742 it was 22.07. In 1741 it was 22.07. In 1740 it was 22.07. In 1739 it was 22.07. In 1738 it was 22.07. In 1737 it was 22.07. In 1736 it was 22.07. In 1735 it was 22.07. In 1734 it was 22.07. In 1733 it was 22.07. In 1732 it was 22.07. In 1731 it was 22.07. In 1730 it was 22.07. In 1729 it was 22.07. In 1728 it was 22.07. In 1727 it was 22.07. In 1726 it was 22.07. In 1725 it was 22.07. In 1724 it was 22.07. In 1723 it was 22.07. In 1722 it was 22.07. In 1721 it was 22.07. In 1720 it was 22.07. In 1719 it was 22.07. In 1718 it was 22.07. In 1717 it was 22.07. In 1716 it was 22.07. In 1715 it was 22.07. In 1714 it was 22.07. In 1713 it was 22.07. In 1712 it was 22.07. In 1711 it was 22.07. In 1710 it was 22.07. In 1709 it was 22.07. In 1708 it was 22.07. In 1707 it was 22.07. In 1706 it was 22.07. In 1705 it was 22.07. In 1704 it was 22.07. In 1703 it was 22.07. In 1702 it was 22.07. In 1701 it was 22.07. In 1700 it was 22.07. In 1699 it was 22.07. In 1698 it was 22.07. In 1697 it was 22.07. In 1696 it was 22.0

[illegible]

SOUTH PARIS.

"Gather ye rosebuds while ye may,
Old time is still a-flying;
This same flower that smiles today
Tomorrow will be dying."

Alfred D. Radford of Boston was in the village yesterday.

Miss Winifred Willis of Boston is a guest at P. R. Ripley's.

Mrs. Kate Stuart is at Peak's Island, where she will visit for a while.

Carl Mason of Auburn has been a guest of relatives for a few days.

Miss Helen King recently spent a day with Mrs. S. Ellen Hawkes in Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Murphy of Lewiston were recent guests of relatives in town.

Mrs. Grace Oliver and daughter, Winifred, of Hallowell, N. H., are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Marion Clark Millard and son of Portland are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mason and daughter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Mason for a few days.

Mrs. Ethel Barrows Black, with little daughter, of North Stratford, N. H., is the guest of her father, Frank E. Barrows.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Swett of Bangor were guests for a short time last week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Swett.

Mr. Harold Fletcher, Mrs. Chester Merrill, Miss Geneva Young and Mrs. E. D. Peewee made a trip to Portland on Tuesday.

Mr. John Dorney and daughter Patricia of Milwaukee, Wis., are visiting Mrs. Dorney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Sturges.

Miss Lucille Morris of Brunswick was a recent guest of Miss Muriel Bowker at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bowker.

Mrs. Nellie Powers and daughter, Miss Lucie Powers, are spending two weeks with Mrs. Powers' sister, Mrs. F. E. Douglas, in Hopedale, Mass.

Walter L. Gray attended the field day of the Cumberland Bar Association at Kennebunk Park Wednesday, where members of the Oxford Bar were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Merriam of South Anson, Mass., have returned home after spending two weeks at the home of P. S. Mason and with other relatives in town.

Charles W. Burgess and family returned Saturday from a week's camping automobile trip, through Canada and the ice states, making about a thousand miles.

On account of other events coming on the day set, the date for the merchants' banquet was changed to Tuesday of this week. The banquet will be served at Merrill's.

Dr. Ingram Stephenson, D. C., of Yarmouthville was in this village yesterday. Dr. Stephenson will be in this village every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday for the practice of chiropractic.

Mrs. R. C. Masterman is in Boston visiting her mother, Mrs. Guthrie. From there she will go to Nova Scotia to visit relatives during the time Mr. Masterman is at the Bates College Summer School.

Miss Zita Clifford of Dorchester, Mass., who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Clifford, went to Waterville the first of last week and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Clifford. She also visited in Rockport.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodbury of Melrose, Mass., were here Tuesday and from here went to the home of P. S. Mason, where they will occupy Harry M. Wheeler's camp. They expect to stay there for six weeks or more.

The many friends of Mrs. Arvilla Wiles will be glad to learn that she has recovered from her recent illness, and is able to about the house of her son Dwight L. Wiles, in Rockland, Mass., with whom she is staying. It may also be of interest to add that she passed her 84th birthday on Wednesday of last week.

Lieut. and Mrs. Winifred Brooks and daughter Carolyn motored here from their home in Annapolis, Md., and are visiting Mrs. Brooks' mother, Mrs. Anna Wright and her sister, Mrs. Evelyn Wright. Mrs. Brooks and daughter will spend the next two weeks attending summer school in New York.

Work is progressing rapidly on the automobile shop building at the farm grounds, in charge of Miss Brooks. The building is not at the end of the main hall wing as at first anticipated, but is below the entrance, which will be used as before. It is from just below the entrance gate to a point about opposite the sprinkler stand pipe behind the track.

Edmond Phillips of Livermore was a recent guest of his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fletcher. Mr. Phillips was a brother to Charles Phillips, who was struck by an automobile and killed July 5th near his home in Bretton Mills, Livermore, and left unconscious by the road side and remained until found by a passing motorist. He was taken to a Lewiston hospital where he died of his injuries on the following Sunday.

Mrs. Olive M. Mason, with her daughter, Miss Alice Mason, of Bethel, and her guest, Miss Lucie Boudreau of Bethel, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mason a little while Thursday.

Miss Mason remained during the day, but her mother and sister, Miss Boudreau, returned to Bethel. Miss Boudreau returned to Mechanic Falls several days, but Miss Mason returned Thursday evening.

A party of Grand Army people went to a mountain trip Wednesday. Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Maxon, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foster, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stalbird, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wymen, J. A. Noyes and daughter, Mrs. Paulin, and Charles George and daughter, Miss Gertrude. They went in two cars driven by Rev. J. L. Wilson and R. B. Holden. Although they encountered some show during the day they had some good views of the mountains. The trip was made by way of Gorham, and thence through Fitchburg, and home by way of Fryeburg. They enjoyed it so well that they are planning another trip by the longer route around the mountains.

William Manley and daughter, Miss Elaine Manley, of Canton, N. Y., were in town last Tuesday, when a motor trip. They had come over the Motway Trail to Boston and Portland, and headed for the White Mountains from Portland, where they were just long enough for Mr. Manley to shake hands with Arthur E. Forbes of the Democrat. Back in 1904 the two men were students in St. Lawrence University at Canton, and members of the same college fraternity, Beta Theta Pi. Mr. Manley came by descent into possession of the St. Lawrence franchise at Canton, and has made of it not only an excellent local paper, but a medium for the free expression of opinion such as is rarely found. This doesn't mean the paper is full of some newspaper men who boast themselves of their freedom, but the fearless voicing of opinion such as a man of culture and public spirit can give. He has many readers who don't always agree with him—but they read what he writes. He is also one of the most loyal alumni of St. Lawrence University, and has been intimately a part of the history of that creditable institution in the past third of a century.

Mrs. L. A. Ronde is visiting relatives in Auburn for a week or two.

James E. Kenney, of Yarmouth and Portland on Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Elder of Malden, Mass., are at their summer home here.

The July meeting of the Mt. Pleasant Page Noble Grand Association will be omitted.

Miss Ellen Ham of Lewiston has been the guest of Mrs. Anna H. Hayes for a few days.

Miss Dorothy Demillon is at Ocean Park, where she will do table work this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham, who are in Buffalo, will return home some time this week.

Mrs. Helen Tyler, of West Bethel, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elton Brown, and family.

Mrs. Charles H. Martin of West Paris, who is ill, is with her sister, Mrs. Lottie Abbott, for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Martin of West Bethel have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Edwards have just enjoyed a week at their camp at Rocky Point, Lake Umbagog, in Oldfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrville A. Clough of Lynn, Mass., are spending the month of July in Maine. At present they are at Fairmount Forester.

Miss Edith Lowell and Miss Charlotte Cole have recently spent a week at the Sunday School Institute at Oak Grove Seminary, Yassalboro.

Mrs. George W. McGinley and sons, Harry and Hollis, are camping for a week of week-end at their location, Spofford Flat in with them.

A portable stand for the band has been erected on the grass plot in Market Square, and was used last Monday evening when the band concert was given.

Because of the repairs taking a little more time than expected, the factory of the Paris Manufacturing Co. will not start up till Wednesday morning of this week.

Henry P. King of Portland, who has spent the month of June at his summer home, The Leant, was called to New York last week by the serious illness of his cousin, Frederick A. King.

Mrs. Donald B. Tobey, daughter, Miss Elizabeth and son Master Banks of Ridgefield, N. J., Miss Lillian Q. Tobey and Miss Annie L. Parsons of New York City are at the Parsons farm for July.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll B. Penley and John L. Penley returned Sunday from a vacation spent at Palmouth Forester. They called on relatives in Kennebunkport, Peak's Island and Portland.

Ferry Ripley has taken ten thousand dollar interest in the Gordon Silver Black Fox Ranches, of which Frank H. Gordon of Bangor is proprietor. The interest in the ranches is the Oxford County representative.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Tuttle, Mrs. Mary Stanley and daughter, Ethel, Mrs. George Burns of Skowhegan, Miss M. L. Kenney and A. W. Kenney made a recent auto trip to Lake Umbagog, returning by way of Berlin and Gorham, N. H.

Something of a landmark went when the last remaining limb of the maple in front of the house of T. S. Barnes on High Street broke off Friday, leaving only the dead trunk of the tree. Life had persisted for a long time on very low terms.

Alton C. Wheeler will be in Augusta this week attending the recent Maine primary ballots, and Mrs. Nora Dunham Babbs, his stenographer, is taking her vacation to the office will be closed.

Mrs. Babbs and her husband, Edwin Percy Babbs, are spending their vacation in Waterville.

George P. Ripley has sold the Prof. William R. Chapman farm in Bethel, which he recently purchased, to Frank H. Gordon of Bangor, proprietor of the Gordon Silver Black Fox Ranches, and it will be used as one of the breeding places of these animals, the fur of which is now popular.

On Thursday the Methodist Sunday School held its annual picnic, going to Lake Tripp. Eight cars carried the party, and as at least four hundred persons, there must have been a considerable number. There were some light showers during the day, but not of the magnitude, and the day was enjoyable to all.

A tea room is to be conducted by Dr. O. S. Smiley at the public camp ground in Norway, where the building to be used is now nearing completion. The building will have screened verandas and be otherwise suitably attractive, and the grounds will be made of certain kinds of food. This will be conducted by Dr. Smiley in cooperation with Merrill's at South Paris.

A gravel trail on the Canadian National tips up nights in this village. The gravel is being distributed for ballast on the new road between the stations of Oxford and Danville. The road expects to have an unusually fine road bed as they are importing gravel that they use.

It is from just below the entrance gate to a point about opposite the sprinkler stand pipe behind the track.

The Scriptural quotation regarding the falling of the rain on the just and unjust is once more brought to mind by the weather of recent days.

Some of them have approached so near as to envelop us in Egyptian darkness.

There was a big case with the thunder, here in South Paris village we have had only a few very light falls of rain. Such an account on account of the delay deferred it until Friday, when they had a good day, though very cold and windy on the summit.

The Universalist Sunday School will go to Lake Tripp Thursday of this week for the annual picnic. Meet at the church at 9 o'clock. Each one please carry a dish or cake. Report regarding transportation desired or that can be furnished to the committee, Mrs. E. B. Shaw, Mrs. H. E. Thurston, or some of the committee.

W. D. Plumb and some of the family here Saturday forenoon. All except Robert Anderson, returned from the longer stay, so as to be of some help to his grandpa, E. N. Anderson, who returned from Bethel, N. Y., last Thursday afternoon.

On Wednesday, July 16th, the Congregational Sunday School will go to Tripp Lake for a picnic supper. They will leave the square at 8:30 and anyone desiring transportation or those who are willing to carry someone, please notify Miss Ruth Bolster, not later than Tuesday night. Let all who can do so, and make the occasion a merry one. If stormy Wednesday, the next day.

The Elm Hill Community Club met with Mrs. W. N. Jenkins on Wednesday, July 17. There were several visitors, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The hostess served fruit punch, fancy cookies and served cake. The usual business meeting was held, and further plans for gentlemen's night were made. The regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Helen Briggs on July 23.

Three men were somewhat injured in a collision of automobiles on the Main Street at the corner of the Main Street and the corner of the Main Street. The car, driven by Francis Carroll, was coming toward the corner, and was a Ford driven by a man named W. Harding, who was standing at the crossing cut off the view, so that neither driver saw the other until too late to avoid a collision. The car was badly damaged, and the man in the car was injured. The other two men in the car got off with minor injuries. Both cars were somewhat damaged.

NORWAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Briggs of Mechanic Falls recently made a visit on Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Gould of Auburn, who are spending a short time on the lake front.

Roife Bradbury of Cliftondale, who has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradbury, has gone to Brookfield to spend a few days with his uncle, Roy Bradbury, and will go from there to Wilton to spend a few days before returning to Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Philney and Miss Hazel Trip recently spent a week on George B. Trip in West Poland.

Mrs. Charles Murphy visited Mrs. Raymond Cox in Danville last week.

The show of last week gave a little revival to gardens, but most owners are willing the good work should go on.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dearden of Chelsea, Mass., were recent guests of Mrs. Rosa Millett.

Miss Grace Blackford of Boston is visiting her brother, Robert F. and H. Knox Blackford, and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. East were in Portland and Old Orchard last week.

Mrs. Addie Reed is at Dr. A. A. Cobb's hospital in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Woodman were in Kennebunk last week.

Miss Helen Tucker of Boston is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tucker.

Mrs. Thelma J. Grover and Gordon Noyes of Boston are spending the summer at the summer school of the University of Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Olmstead and family motored to Burlington, Vt., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kimball and Mr. and Mrs. George T. East were on a trip to Old Orchard and Ocean Park for an outing one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cole, with their daughter, Miss Doris Cole, and Miss Henrietta M. Taylor, motored to Portland and Old Orchard the first of last week.

Miss Fannie Crocker of Boston is a guest of Mrs. C. F. Gates.

Mrs. Helen Briggs, daughter of Mrs. Oliver visited in Haverhill, Mass., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Henson have returned from their wedding trip and are going to housekeeping in an apartment in S. B. Cummings house at South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Merrill have gone to Pittsfield, N. H., for the summer.

Mrs. J. E. Henson and Mr. J. E. Henson have gone to their home in Union for a vacation.

Mrs. Charles Buswell, Lewis R. Buswell, with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buswell of Randolph, who were in town for several days, made quite an extended auto trip through southern Maine, visiting Portland and Lewiston.

Quite large crowds visited Main's circus the fair ground last Saturday.

Prof. Harry F. Titcomb of Essex, Conn., has been visiting his mother, Mrs. J. E. Titcomb, at "The Garden Camp," and his sister, Mrs. J. E. Titcomb, at the Bear Mountain camp for boys in Waterville.

Mrs. Jack Chamberlain of Worcester, Mass., came to Norway Tuesday and will spend six weeks in town. Mr. Chamberlain will also be in town for a few days.

Francis Stanton of Worcester, Mass., is spending the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George T. East.

Miss Frances Moore is spending the summer at the Crawford House in the White Mountains.

Miss Mary Whitridge is attending the summer school in Farmington.

Miss Adeline Decker is attending the summer school at the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Leon Curtis and daughter, Miss Mildred, were at Portland Forester for a day or two recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Holman, Mrs. Rose Needham and Edward Needham, and family, who were recent guests of Mrs. Emma Mann.

Prof. Verne M. Whitman of Acadia, N. H., is visiting his parents, Judge and Mrs. E. P. Whitman.

Mrs. George P. Locke has returned from several weeks spent in Worcester, Mass., where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Chamberlain and family.

The Universalist Sunday School is taking a vacation until the first Sunday in September; and the Young People's Christian Union has adjourned until the same time.

Mrs. Walter Waite and son Rexford were at Ferry Beach last week and attended the meetings of the Universalist Sunday School Convention.

Mrs. Martha Richardson of Lovell was in town last week.

Miss Elsie A. Faver is taking her annual vacation from her duties in the Oxford Democrat office and she left Wednesday for Brookton, Mass., to visit her brother, Henry F. Faver and family.

The Sewing Circle of the Universalist Church met Friday with Mrs. Lizzie Sampson.

Miss Helene Richardson spent a day or two of the first of last week at the home of Mrs. E. B. Shaw.

Miss Mary Millett spent last week in Springfield, Vt., the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. B. Shaw.

The Lewiston Reading Circle held its annual outing on Friday at the summer home of Mrs. E. B. Shaw on the shore of Lake Umbagog.

Mrs. Donnie Russell of Lowell, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Goodwin, on Pike's Hill.

Captain Moses P. Stiles of Portland and at one time of Norway, was one of the defeated candidates for the Legislature from the Forest City, and he has asked for a recount of the ballots thrown in his district. All the Portland ballots were taken to Augusta last Monday by automobile accompanied by Oliver Clark, Edwin Clark and Charles Maxwell. A defeated candidate for county commissioner for Cumberland County, has also asked for a recount of the commissioner votes.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold a food sale Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Dr. B. F. Bradbury.

Paris Trust Company.

At its annual meeting held at its banking rooms last Wednesday, the Paris Trust Company elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President—Perley F. Ripley.

Treasurer—Perley F. Ripley.

Secretary—Perley F. Ripley.

Directors—Perley F. Ripley, Leila L. Mason, Walter L. Gray, Delbert H. George, M. A. Wood, Harry Brown, J. Hastings Bass.

Board of Directors—Perley F. Ripley, Leila L. Mason, Walter L. Gray, Delbert H. George, M. A. Wood, Harry Brown, J. Hastings Bass, Dr. Henry Philby, Edwin J. Mann, Dr. R. P. Fisher, Benjamin B. Billings, Arthur H. Britt, Harold C. Fletcher, Joseph Robinson.

Query: Are the people of South Paris village, containing several hundred church members and four resident pastors, going to sit idly down to sleep on one Sunday of this vacation season or by without the sound of church bells calling them to worship God?

One of our MEMBERS.

On Wednesday, July 16th, the Congregational Sunday School will go to Tripp Lake for a picnic supper. They will leave the square at 8:30 and anyone desiring transportation or those who are willing to carry someone, please notify Miss Ruth Bolster, not later than Tuesday night. Let all who can do so, and make the occasion a merry one. If stormy Wednesday, the next day.

The Elm Hill Community Club met with Mrs. W. N. Jenkins on Wednesday, July 17. There were several visitors, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The hostess served fruit punch, fancy cookies and served cake. The usual business meeting was held, and further plans for gentlemen's night were made. The regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Helen Briggs on July 23.

Three men were somewhat injured in a collision of automobiles on the Main Street at the corner of the Main Street and the corner of the Main Street. The car, driven by Francis Carroll, was coming toward the corner, and was a Ford driven by a man named W. Harding, who was standing at the crossing cut off the view, so that neither driver saw the other until too late to avoid a collision. The car was badly damaged, and the man in the car was injured. The other two men in the car got off with minor injuries. Both cars were somewhat damaged.

NORWAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Briggs of Mechanic Falls recently made a visit on Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Gould of Auburn, who are spending a short time on the lake front.

Roife Bradbury of Cliftondale, who has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradbury, has gone to Brookfield to spend a few days with his uncle, Roy Bradbury, and will go from there to Wilton to spend a few days before returning to Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Philney and Miss Hazel Trip recently spent a week on George B. Trip in West Poland.

Mrs. Charles Murphy visited Mrs. Raymond Cox in Danville last week.

The show of last week gave a little revival to gardens, but most owners are willing the good work should go on.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dearden of Chelsea, Mass., were recent guests of Mrs. Rosa Millett.

Miss Grace Blackford of Boston is visiting her brother, Robert F. and H. Knox Blackford, and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. East were in Portland and Old Orchard last week.

Mrs. Addie Reed is at Dr. A. A. Cobb's hospital in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Woodman were in Kennebunk last week.

Miss Helen Tucker of Boston is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tucker.

Mrs. Thelma J. Grover and Gordon Noyes of Boston are spending the summer at the summer school of the University of Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Olmstead and family motored to Burlington, Vt., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kimball and Mr. and Mrs. George T. East were on a trip to Old Orchard and Ocean Park for an outing one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cole, with their daughter, Miss Doris Cole, and Miss Henrietta M. Taylor, motored to Portland and Old Orchard the first of last week.

Miss Fannie Crocker of Boston is a guest of Mrs. C. F. Gates.

Mrs. Helen Briggs, daughter of Mrs. Oliver visited in Haverhill, Mass., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Henson have returned from their wedding trip and are going to housekeeping in an apartment in S. B. Cummings house at South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Merrill have gone to Pittsfield, N. H., for the summer.

Mrs. J. E. Henson and Mr. J. E. Henson have gone to their home in Union for a vacation.

Mrs. Charles Buswell, Lewis R. Buswell, with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buswell of Randolph, who were in town for several days, made quite an extended auto trip through southern Maine, visiting Portland and Lewiston.

Quite large crowds visited Main's circus the fair ground last Saturday.

Prof. Harry F. Titcomb of Essex, Conn., has been visiting his mother, Mrs. J. E. Titcomb, at "The Garden Camp," and his sister, Mrs. J. E. Titcomb, at the Bear Mountain camp for boys in Waterville.

Mrs. Jack Chamberlain of Worcester, Mass., came to Norway Tuesday and will spend six weeks in town. Mr. Chamberlain will also be in town for a few days.

Francis Stanton of Worcester, Mass., is spending the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George T. East.

Miss Frances Moore is spending the summer at the Crawford House in the White Mountains.

Miss Mary Whitridge is attending the summer school in Farmington.

Miss Adeline Decker is attending the summer school at the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Leon Curtis and daughter, Miss Mildred, were at Portland Forester for a day or two recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Holman, Mrs. Rose Needham and Edward Needham, and family, who were recent guests of Mrs. Emma Mann.

Prof. Verne M. Whitman of Acadia, N. H., is visiting his parents, Judge and Mrs. E. P. Whitman.

Mrs. George P. Locke has returned from several weeks spent in Worcester, Mass., where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Chamberlain and family.

The Universalist Sunday School is taking a vacation until the first Sunday in September; and the Young People's Christian Union has adjourned until the same time.

Mrs. Walter Waite and son Rexford were at Ferry Beach last week and attended the meetings of the Universalist Sunday School Convention.

Mrs. Martha Richardson of Lovell was in town last week.

Miss Elsie A. Faver is taking her annual vacation from her duties in the Oxford Democrat office and she left Wednesday for Brookton, Mass., to visit her brother, Henry F. Faver and family.

The Sewing Circle of the Universalist Church met Friday with Mrs. Lizzie Sampson.

Miss Helene Richardson spent a day or two of the first of last week at the home of Mrs. E. B. Shaw.

Miss Mary Millett spent last week in Springfield, Vt., the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. B. Shaw.

The Lewiston Reading Circle held its annual outing on Friday at the summer home of Mrs. E. B. Shaw on the shore of Lake Umbagog.

Mrs. Donnie Russell of Lowell, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Goodwin, on Pike's Hill.

Captain Moses P. Stiles of Portland and at one time of Norway, was one of the defeated candidates for the Legislature from the Forest City, and he has asked for a recount of the ballots thrown in his district. All the Portland ballots were taken to Augusta last Monday by automobile accompanied by Oliver Clark, Edwin Clark and Charles Maxwell. A defeated candidate for county commissioner for Cumberland County, has also asked for a recount of the commissioner votes.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold a food sale Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Dr. B. F. Bradbury.

Paris Trust Company.

At its annual meeting held at its banking rooms last Wednesday, the Paris Trust Company elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President—Perley F. Ripley.

Treasurer—Perley F. Ripley.

Secretary—Perley F. Ripley.

Directors—Perley F. Ripley, Leila L. Mason, Walter L. Gray, Delbert H. George, M. A. Wood, Harry Brown, J. Hastings Bass.

Board of Directors—Perley F. Ripley, Leila L. Mason, Walter L. Gray, Delbert H. George, M. A. Wood, Harry Brown, J. Hastings Bass, Dr. Henry Philby, Edwin J. Mann, Dr. R. P. Fisher, Benjamin B. Billings, Arthur H. Britt, Harold C. Fletcher, Joseph Robinson.

Query: Are the people of South Paris village, containing several hundred church members and four resident pastors, going to sit idly down to sleep on one Sunday of this vacation season or by without the sound of church bells calling them to worship God?

One of our MEMBERS.

On Wednesday, July 16th, the Congregational Sunday School will go to Tripp Lake for a picnic supper. They will leave the square at 8:30 and anyone desiring transportation or those who are willing to carry someone, please notify Miss Ruth Bolster, not later than Tuesday night. Let all who can do so, and make the occasion a merry one. If stormy Wednesday, the next day.

The Elm Hill Community Club met with Mrs. W. N. Jenkins on Wednesday, July 17. There were several visitors, and a very pleasant afternoon

